IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE**

These forms and instructions are provided as a courtesy only. Clark County, the Eighth Judicial District Court, the Clark County Family Law Self-Help Center, and their employees SHALL NOT BE LIABLE for errors contained within or for direct, indirect, special, or consequential damages in connection with providing this material.

Many family law matters involve complex and valuable legal rights. These forms and instructions are basic general forms and DO NOT fit all situations. If your situation does not fit the general forms you will need to perform additional legal research or consult an attorney.

It is always recommended that you consult with an attorney before attempting to use self-help. This is especially true if your case involves unique or complicated issues. Most family law issues affect significant legal rights. Some rights cannot be adequately protected without the assistance of an attorney.

When representing yourself, you are responsible for understanding the law that governs your case and for filing the proper legal documents. The law provides for exceptions in some situations. If your case involves special circumstances these exceptions may apply to you. Self-Help Center forms do not include information on these exceptions. Applicable laws and rules are set out in the Nevada Revised Statutes, The Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, and other local rules governing the jurisdiction in which you are filing your documents.

By signing these documents and filing them with the court, you agree to the following:

- You have carefully read the documents;
- You understand all the terms and conditions in the documents;
- You agree with everything in the documents; and
- You are aware of all of the consequences that may occur as a result of filing.

Note that if you, the other party, or your children have ties to a state other than Nevada (i.e. you recently moved here or you have orders from another state) you should consult an attorney BEFORE filing any documents because the court may not have jurisdiction over you. However, once you file certain documents, the court will have jurisdiction and you WILL NOT be able to change that.

Helpful Tips for the Joint Petition for Divorce (No Minor Children):

- The filing fee for the Joint Petition is $289.
- All documents must be typed or written neatly in black ink
- You can use this packet if:
  - You or your spouse have lived in Nevada for the past 6 weeks;
  - You are incompatible in marriage;
  - You do not have minor children together;
  - Both parties agree on everything in the divorce papers; and
  - Both parties are willing to sign the divorce papers.
- You are not legally divorced until the judge signs your Decree and it is filed with the clerk.

Joint Petition for Divorce (No Minor Children)

Step 1: Can I use a Joint Petition to file for Divorce?

A. Have you or your spouse lived in Nevada for the past 6 weeks?

☐ Yes → Go to Part B

☐ No → STOP: You cannot file for divorce using a joint petition.

B. Do you and your spouse agree on ALL ISSUES and are you both willing to sign the divorce forms?

☐ No → STOP: You cannot file for divorce using a joint petition.

☐ Yes → GO: Go to Step 2

Step 2: Do I have all of the forms I need?

- ☐ Affidavit of Resident Witness
- ☐ Decree of Divorce
- ☐ Certificate of Mailing
- ☐ Family Court Cover Sheet
- ☐ Joint Petition for Divorce

Step 3: Prepare your Forms.

All Self-Help Center forms are in a fill-in-the-blank format. Use only black ink. Do not leave any lines blank on the forms. If something does not apply write "N/A".

A. Fill out the following forms.
- ☐ Family Court Cover Sheet
- ☐ Decree of Divorce
- ☐ Joint Petition For Divorce

B. Have a third party fill out the Affidavit of Resident Witness and sign in front of a notary.

C. Both parties must sign the Joint Petition in front of a notary.

D. Electronically File the cover sheet and Joint Petition for Divorce. You will be emailed a case number and file stamped copy of these documents.

E. Use the case number to electronically file the Affidavit of Resident Witness.

Step 4: Print four copies of the electronically filed stamped Joint Petition. Make two copies of the Decree. Attach one file stamped copy of the Joint Petition to each Decree.

Step 5: Submit forms to the judge.

Place a copy of the forms below in your judge's mailbox located on the 3rd floor of the Family Court.

- ☐ One file-stamped copy of the Joint Petition
- ☐ One file-stamped copy of the Affidavit of Resident Witness
- ☐ The original Decree of Divorce and two copies of the Decree.

Step 6: Now what do I do?

A. Wait to receive your final decree. You are not legally divorced until the Decree is signed by the judge and filed with the Clerk. The final decree is mailed to you via U.S. Postal Service.

B. Mail a copy of the final Decree to the other party and electronically file the Certificate of Mailing as proof.

Note: If you made a mistake on the forms, you will receive instructions from the judge's law clerk on how to correct them (you may have to file amended forms).
