CASE NUMBER

The law in the State of Connecticut requires that all vehicles that are registered must maintain continuous insurance coverage. If you believe that your situation warrants further investigation and you have evidence to support that, please complete this form. On the form, all areas that apply to you must be completed, your signature must appear in the certification portion and any documents that you feel may be relevant to your case must be attached.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. If the plates have been canceled attach a copy of the plate receipt.
2. If the vehicle has been sold or junked, attach a copy of the title showing the assignment to the new owner and the date it occurred. If a non-titled vehicle, a copy of the Q-1 form showing the transfer to the new owner and the date it occurred must be attached.
3. If repossessed, a copy of the paperwork from the lienholder or marshal that identifies the vehicle showing the date they took it into their possession.
4. If the vehicle was donated to a charity a copy of the title or Q-1 (as above) showing the transfer to the charity and the date the vehicle was given to them.
5. If you have any other information or documentation that you believe is relevant to your case, please attach copies to the form and return it to the Department of Motor Vehicles.
