DEFINITIONS

"Political committee established by an assembly or senatorial district" means a political committee created to aid or promote the nomination or election of any candidate or candidates in a particular assembly or senatorial district.

"Political committee established by a statewide officer or a member of the General Assembly, or his agent" means a political committee created to aid or promote the nomination or election of any candidate or candidates to a statewide office or to the General assembly and which was created with the knowledge or consent of any statewide officer or member of the General Assembly, or any other agent of such officer or member.

"Political committee established in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of, any such officer, member, or his agent or controlled by such officer, member, or his agent" means a political committee created to aid or promote the nomination or election of any candidate or candidates to a statewide office or the General Assembly which (1) has a statewide officer or member of the General Assembly as an officer or treasurer, or (2) has a statewide officer or member of the General Assembly who has substantial authority, influence or ability to direct or determine contributions or expenditures made by the political committee. This includes a committee not initially established by a statewide officer or legislator or agent, but which is currently controlled or directed by a statewide officer or legislator, or agent of the officer or legislator.

"Statewide Office(r)" means the office of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney General or Secretary of the State.

"Agent" means any person authorized to act for or in place of another.
