THE LAUTENBERG AMENDMENT
[18 USC §922(d)(9)]

The Lautenberg Amendment to the Gun Control Act of 1968 makes it a felony for anyone convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms or ammunition.

A person has a conviction of a "misdemeanor crime of domestic violence" if:

- the person was convicted of a misdemeanor crime;
- the offense had as an element the use or attempted use of physical force, or threatened use of a deadly weapon, and;
- the convicted offender was at the time of the offense:
 - a current or former spouse, parent, or guardian of the victim; or
 - a person with whom the victim shared a child in common; or
 - a person who was cohabitating with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, parent or guardian; or
 - a person who was similarly situated to a spouse, parent, or guardian of the victim; and
- The convicted offender was represented by counsel, or knowingly and intelligently waived the right to counsel, and; if entitled to have the case tried by a jury, the case was actually tried by a jury or the person knowingly and intelligently waived the right to have the case tried by a jury; and d. The conviction has not been expunged or set aside, or the convicted offender has not been pardoned for the offense or had civil rights restored, unless the pardon, expungement, or restoration of civil rights provides that the person may not ship, transport, possess or receive firearms.

The undersigned applicant for an Idaho concealed weapons permit makes the following statement:

After having read the above, I verify that I have not been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence.
