

State of Minnesota

County _____

District Court

Judicial District: _____
Court File Number: _____
Case Type: _____

State of Minnesota,
Plaintiff

vs.

Prosecutor’s Notice of Retention or Early Release of Potentially Hazardous
DNA & Fingerprint Exhibits Received into Evidence
Court File No. _____

_____,
Defendant

To:

The following potentially hazardous exhibits were received in evidence at trial:

- Biohazard:
- Contaminated sharps:
- Corrosive or toxic substances (other than narcotics):
- Narcotics
- Guns and/or ammunition
- Flammable, explosive or reactive materials (other than ammunition):
- Other potentially hazardous substances:
- The following evidence (including DNA and fingerprint evidence related to identification of the defendant) must be retained until expiration of sentence:
- The following potentially hazardous substances may be returned to law enforcement after the time for direct appeal has run (90 days after sentence if no notice of appeal is filed):

Dated: _____
_____ County Attorney