

Instructions for Answer and Counterclaim Without Minor Children

This form may be completed by the Defendant in a divorce action**

An Answer is a written response by the Defendant to the Complaint to protect the Defendant's rights. A Counterclaim is the way a Defendant informs the court and the Plaintiff that he or she also wants a divorce and upon what grounds. It tells the Plaintiff (and the court) what the Defendant is asking for and why. If the Defendant files an Answer and Counterclaim, he/she must file the Answer and Counterclaim with the Clerk of Courts and serve it on the Plaintiff within thirty days after Defendant is served with the Summons and Complaint. Service of the Answer and Counterclaim may be made by mail. If an Answer is not filed, the court may grant the Plaintiff everything requested in the Complaint and the Judge will enter a Decree of Divorce in Default. The Defendant is not required to file an Answer and Counterclaim if he or she agrees with everything in the Complaint.

- Complete the top portion of the Answer (the "caption") just as it appears in the Summons and Complaint.
- Answer or complete paragraphs 1-4. You must respond to each and every paragraph of the Complaint for Divorce. (You must Admit, Deny, Partially Admit or Deny, or state you Do Not Have Enough Information to Answer.)
- Complete the "Counterclaim" section:
 1. Fill in the name of the county in which you reside
 2. Fill in the name of the county in which your spouse resides.
 3. Fill in the information regarding the date of your marriage. If the parties are living apart, the date they began to do so.
 4. Check the appropriate grounds for divorce in the event that you and your spouse do not agree to the use of irreconcilable differences. Please understand that seeking a divorce for other than irreconcilable differences is likely to result in a contested divorce which is both costly and complex. In those circumstances, you are strongly advised to meet with and hire an attorney to fully protect your interests. You are not required to check other grounds for divorce.
 5. You do not need to write anything for this paragraph. However, if you and your spouse have minor children or if one of you is pregnant, this is not the correct form for you to use. Use the form specifically for an Answer and Counterclaim With Minor Children.
 6. You do not need to write anything for this paragraph. It tells the court that you and your spouse own property and have debts which need to be divided.
 7. Circle or otherwise indicate the correct information in this paragraph so that the court knows how to handle support issues.
- Answer or complete the last four paragraphs which tell the court what you are asking for in the divorce:
 1. You do not need to write anything for this paragraph. It tells the court that you are asking for a divorce from your spouse.
 2. You do not need to write anything for this paragraph. It tells the court that you are asking the court to equitably divide your property and debts.
 3. Indicate if either party wishes to have his/her former last name restored. Insert their date of birth.
 4. You do not need to write anything for this paragraph. It tells the court that you are requesting any other relief that is equitable and just.
- You must date and sign the Answer and Counterclaim and provide your address and telephone number.
- Complete the Verification portion: Do not fill out the verification until you are in the presence of a notary public or Clerk of Court. Make sure you bring identification to show the notary or Clerk of Court. A notary public can usually be found at the bank and sometimes at the courthouse.

WARNING: By signing your name, you are swearing to the court that you are telling the truth and that you have a good faith reason for your requests. If you are not telling the truth, if you are misleading the court, or if you are serving or filing this document for an improper purpose, the court could find you in contempt or you could be prosecuted for not telling the truth.

If you wish to explain your answers to the previous statements please use the space below. You are not required to make further statements and please remember that your statements are made under oath. If you do not wish to explain your answers further, omit this page when you submit your Answer to the Clerk of Courts.
