

Non-public Information – Safeguarded Address

Case Number _____

Instructions: A party’s residential address (or that of a party’s child) can be safeguarded from the other party in the 5 types of cases listed below. Safeguarding an address is your choice. If your case is one of these casetypes and if you want to safeguard your residential address (or that of your child) from the other party, write the address here, and omit it from the public document. Omit it also from the Non-public Information about Minors form and from the Parent Identification and Location form. File this form with the judicial service assistant, but do not serve this form on the other party.

Name*	Residential Address	City, State, Zip

*Name of an adult may be included on public records.

**City, state and zip code may be included on public records.

Keep this residential address private and do not provide it to the other party because:

I have a court order or agency order authorizing me to keep my address private;

OR because this proceeding is about:

- a protective order (Utah Code Section 78B-7-109)
- a stalking injunction (Utah Code Section 77-3a-101)
- a parentage order (Utah Code Section 62A-11-304.4)
- a custody order (Utah Code Section 78B-13-209)
- a support order (Utah Code Section 78B-14-312)

I declare that under penalty of Utah Code Section 78B-5-705 that everything stated in this document is true and correct.
