TRIAL DE NOVO
BEFORE A THREE JUDGE
PANEL

JP17-12-000158

Case Heard: February 20, 2012
Case Decided: February 22, 2012

Appearances: Both parties appeared pro se.

NOTICE OF JUDGMENT/ORDER

The Court has entered a judgment or order in the following form:

Plaintiffs originally filed this suit on January 10, 2012 to recover unpaid rent and possession of the premises located at 509 Heath Row, Milford, DE 19963. A trial was held before the Hon. Larry Sipple on January 26, 2012 with a decision being rendered in favor of the plaintiff on January 27, 2012. A hearing before a three judge panel pursuant to 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5717 (a) was requested by the defendants on February 3, 2012. An appeal bond was set at $10,000, which the defendants failed to post and possession of the premises was returned to the plaintiffs on Feb. 13, 2012.

All parties appeared for the trial de novo before the Hon. Stephani Adams, the Hon. Sheila Blakely and the Hon. John C. Martin on February 20, 2012. The defendants indicated at the hearing that they no longer sought possession of the premises, but disputed the amount of the original judgment. The panel decided to go ahead with the hearing on the back rent, since all parties were there and the Court only learned at trial that possession was no longer an issue.

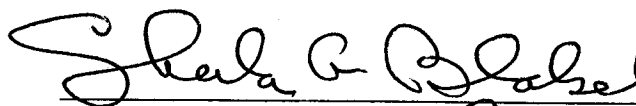

The defendants disputed the amount sought by the plaintiffs after the parties had reached an agreement in November 2011 for the defendants to pay $500 per week instead of $1600 per month in 6CF14J (Rev. 9/15/04)

order to catch up on the back rent. Defendants also claimed that the plaintiffs had told them to keep their money and use it to find a new place to live, which somehow voided their obligation to pay the full amount listed in their rental agreement.

After a careful review of all the testimony and evidence presented, the Court finds for the plaintiffs by a preponderance of the evidence. The Court found the arguments of the defendants to be without merit. 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5108(a) states that once a lease expires and becomes a month to month lease "...all other terms of the rental agreement shall continue in full force and effect." The total amount owed to the plaintiffs is determined by the Court to be $11,378.28. This amount was determined as follows: Back rent in the amount of $200 for July 2011 and $1600 per month rent for 6 months through January 2012 equals $9,800.00. Per diem rent for 13 days during the month of February at $53.33 per day equals $693.29. Late fees of $75.00 are only awarded for 10 months, since a new payment arrangement was worked out the first week in November, 2011. Late fees therefore total $750.00. Kerosene bills totaled $2,034.99 for a delivery on January 24, 2012 of $990.00 and a delivery made on February 20, 2012 of $1,040.99. No award is made for carpet cleaning as this new issue was not identified in the original complaint or after the appeal was filed and prior to the trial de novo as required under 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5717(b). Finally a security deposit of $1,900.00 was subtracted from the total.

Therefore judgment is entered in favor of the plaintiffs in the amount of $11,378.28 plus $40.00 court costs and interest at the rate of 5.75 % per annum.

It is so ordered this 22nd day of February, 2012.

Hon. Sheila Blakely

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS

Any party has 15 days starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge to appeal the judgment of the Justice of the Peace Court to the Court of Common Pleas of the above county. If the judgment involves an action for summary possession in a landlord/tenant case, then either party has 5 business days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to appeal the judgment to a three judge panel at the Justice of the Peace Court where the judgment was ordered. You must complete all of the appeal requirements within those periods. To prevent dismissal, the appeal must name all of the parties as they were originally named in the Justice of the Peace Court action. (This applies even if the action was dismissed in the Justice of the Peace Court against one or more of the parties.) Additional information on appeal procedures is found in the attached sheet entitled "Justice of the Peace Courts Civil Post-Judgment Procedures". (J.P. Civ. Form No. 14A) If no appeal is filed, parties may remove all exhibits from the Court no sooner than 16 days and no later than 30 days, from the date of this judgment. If not removed, the Court may dispose of the exhibits without further notice to the parties.

Final Date of Appeal of a Civil Case to the Court of Common Pleas is 15 days from the judgment.

Final Date for Appeal of a Landlord/Tenant case to a 3 Judge Panel is 5 days from the judgment.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURT CIVIL POST-JUDGMENT PROCEDURES

[This information is not legal advice and not a substitute for seeking legal advice from an attorney. This information is not binding on the court if incorrect or misunderstood. It relates to frequently asked questions concerning post-judgment procedures but does not address all of the possible procedures and may not apply in your particular case. Forms for these procedures may be obtained from any Justice of the Peace Civil Court. All motions must include the name of the court, the names of the parties, the case number, the date the motion is filed with the Justice of the Peace Court and a title indicating the reason for the motion. Court costs or fees must accompany the motion, unless the person has requested, and the court determined, that the person may proceed in forma pauperis (without paying costs or fees because they have no money to pay).]

FOR CIVIL ACTIONS IN DEBT, TRESPASS OR REPLEVIN:

DEFAULT JUDGMENTS

Default judgments are normally entered against a defendant who fails to appear in court on the scheduled trial date or to provide a written answer to a complaint as required by the summons. If a default judgment has been entered, the defendant has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to enter a motion asking that the judgment be vacated and the case be reopened so the defendant may present evidence on the case. If service was made by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the certified mail was returned unclaimed, the defendant has 30 calendar days to file a motion to vacate a default judgment. This motion must be in writing and should briefly state the reason for the request to vacate the judgment as provided by 10 Del. C. § 9538. (Copies of the complete Delaware Code, which include this Code section, are available in public libraries throughout the State.) The time allowed to appeal a judgment continues to run even after a motion to vacate the default judgement is filed (see below for additional information on appeal procedures). A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

NON-SUIT JUDGMENTS

Non-suit judgments are entered against a plaintiff who fails to appear in court on the scheduled trial date. Non-suit judgments against the plaintiff are similar to default judgments against the defendant. (See above section.) If a non-suit judgment has been entered, the plaintiff has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to enter a motion requesting that the judgment be vacated and the case reopened so the plaintiff may present evidence on the case. This motion must be in writing and should briefly state the reasons for the request, as provided by 10 Del. C. § 9539. (Copies of the complete Delaware Code, which include this Code section, are available in public libraries throughout the State.) A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

APPEALS - Either party has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to appeal the judgment to the Court of Common Pleas for a trial de novo (new trial). 10 Del. C. § 9571. To file an appeal, the appellant (party seeking the appeal) must go to the Court of Common Pleas, fill out the appeal form and comply with other Court of Common Pleas requirements, within 15 days after the judgment is entered. A certified transcript of the Justice of the Peace Court record and the filing fee of $125.00 must be filed by the appellant with the Court of Common Pleas within 10 days after the appeal was filed (within 25 days after the Justice of the Peace Court judgment). A certified transcript of Justice of the Peace Court record may be obtained from the Justice of the Peace Court which ordered the judgment at least five (5) days prior to the final date of filing the transcript with the Court of Common Pleas. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY A CERTIFIED TRANSCRIPT REQUEST. To prevent execution on the judgment during the time of the appeal, an appellant must apply to the Court of Common Pleas for a bond to stay the execution.

MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL - Either party has 10 days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to file a motion for a new trial as provided under Justice of the Peace Court Civil Rule 59. This motion shall be in writing and shall briefly state the reasons for the request. A motion for a new trial will be heard by the Justice of the Peace who originally heard the case. The ability of the Justice of the Peace to grant a motion for a new trial is limited. For example, the reason given for requesting a new trial may be newly discovered evidence. However, for a judge to grant a motion for a new trial based upon newly discovered evidence, the party requesting the new trial must show all of the following: (1) the newly discovered evidence is important enough to change the result in the case; (2) the evidence could not have been discovered prior to the original trial with reasonable investigation; and (3) the evidence does not merely repeat or dispute evidence presented in the original trial. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

FOR LANDLORD/TENANT POSSESSION ACTIONS:

APPEALS

FOR POSSESSION OF RENTAL UNIT - Either party has five (5) business days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to appeal the judgment of a Justice of the Peace which relates to the possession of a rental unit and other rental matters (including back rent due) to a special Justice of the Peace court. The special court trial will be a completely new trial before three other Justices of the Peace, unless the original trial was a jury trial. The appellant (seeking to appeal to the three-judge special court) must appear in the originating Justice of the Peace Court and make the appeal in writing. A FEE OF $50.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION. To prevent execution on the judgment during the time of the appeal, the appellant must provide a bond or other assurances, as required by the court, to demonstrate the ability to pay all court costs, money damages, and other payments ordered by the court.

FOR DEBT (Rent Only) - The procedures for appealing or filing a motion for a new trial in a civil debt action explained above apply to an appeal of a landlord/tenant action involving rent or money damages only (and not possession of the rental unit).

DEFAULT OR NON-SUIT JUDGMENTS - If the possession of the rental unit was obtained by default judgment or nonsuit in a landlord/tenant possession action, the motion to vacate the default judgment or nonsuit must be filed within 10 days from the date the judgment was entered. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION. (This applies only to cases filed after July 17, 1996. Motions to vacate a default judgment or nonsuit in cases filed before July 17, 1996 must comply with the same time periods as for default and nonsuit judgments in civil actions in debt, trespass or replevin (see front page).)

The Court has entered a judgment or order in the following form:

Plaintiffs originally filed this suit on January 10, 2012 to recover unpaid rent and possession of the premises located at 509 Heath Row, Milford, DE 19963. A trial was held before the Hon. Larry Sipple on January 26, 2012 with a decision being rendered in favor of the plaintiff on January 27, 2012. A hearing before a three judge panel pursuant to 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5717 (a) was requested by the defendants on February 3, 2012. An appeal bond was set at $10,000, which the defendants failed to post and possession of the premises was returned to the plaintiffs on Feb. 13, 2012.

All parties appeared for the trial de novo before the Hon. Stephani Adams, the Hon. Sheila Blakely and the Hon. John C. Martin on February 20, 2012. The defendants indicated at the hearing that they no longer sought possession of the premises, but disputed the amount of the original judgment. The panel decided to go ahead with the hearing on the back rent, since all parties were there and the Court only learned at trial that possession was no longer an issue.

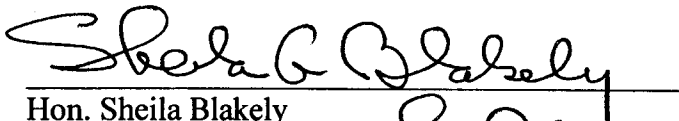

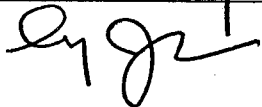

The defendants disputed the amount sought by the plaintiffs after the parties had reached an agreement in November 2011 for the defendants to pay $500 per week instead of $1600 per month in 6CF14J (Rev. 9/15/04)

order to catch-up on the back-rent. Defendants also claimed that the plaintiffs had told them to keep their money and use it to find a new place to live, which somehow voided their obligation to pay the full amount listed in their rental agreement.

After a careful review of all the testimony and evidence presented, the Court finds for the plaintiffs by a preponderance of the evidence. The Court found the arguments of the defendants to be without merit. 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5108(a) states that once a lease expires and becomes a month to month lease "...all other terms of the rental agreement shall continue in full force and effect." The total amount owed to the plaintiffs is determined by the Court to be $11,378.28. This amount was determined as follows: Back rent in the amount of $200 for July 2011 and $1600 per month rent for 6 months through January 2012 equals $9,800.00. Per diem rent for 13 days during the month of February at $53.33 per day equals $693.29. Late fees of $75.00 are only awarded for 10 months, since a new payment arrangement was worked out the first week in November, 2011. Late fees therefore total $750.00. Kerosene bills totaled $2,034.99 for a delivery on January 24, 2012 of $990.00 and a delivery made on February 20, 2012 of $1,040.99. No award is made for carpet cleaning as this new issue was not identified in the original complaint or after the appeal was filed and prior to the trial de novo as required under 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5717(b). Finally a security deposit of $1,900.00 was subtracted from the total.

Therefore judgment is entered in favor of the plaintiffs in the amount of $11,378.28 plus $40.00 court costs and interest at the rate of 5.75 % per annum.

It is so ordered this 22nd day of February, 2012.

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS

Any party has 15 days starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge to appeal the judgment of the Justice of the Peace Court to the Court of Common Pleas of the above county. If the judgment involves an action for summary possession in a landlord/tenant case, then either party has 5 business days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to appeal the judgment to a three judge panel at the Justice of the Peace Court where the judgment was ordered. You must complete all of the appeal requirements within those periods. To prevent dismissal, the appeal must name all of the parties as they were originally named in the Justice of the Peace Court action. (This applies even if the action was dismissed in the Justice of the Peace Court against one or more of the parties.) Additional information on appeal procedures is found in the attached sheet entitled "Justice of the Peace Courts Civil Post-Judgment Procedures". (J.P. Civ. Form No. 14A) If no appeal is filed, parties may remove all exhibits from the Court no sooner than 16 days and no later than 30 days, from the date of this judgment. If not removed, the Court may dispose of the exhibits without further notice to the parties.

Final Date of Appeal of a Civil Case to the Court of Common Pleas is 15 days from the judgment.

Final Date for Appeal of a Landlord/Tenant case to a 3 Judge Panel is 5 days from the judgment.

FOR CIVIL ACTIONS IN DEBT, TRESPASS OR REPLEVIN:

DEFAULT JUDGMENTS

Default judgments are normally entered against a defendant who fails to appear in court on the scheduled trial date or to provide a written answer to a complaint as required by the summons. If a default judgment has been entered, the defendant has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to enter a motion asking that the judgment be vacated and the case be reopened so the defendant may present evidence on the case. If service was made by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the certified mail was returned unclaimed, the defendant has 30 calendar days to file a motion to vacate a default judgment. This motion must be in writing and should briefly state the reason for the request to vacate the judgment as provided by 10 Del. C. § 9538. (Copies of the complete Delaware Code, which include this Code section, are available in public libraries throughout the State.) The time allowed to appeal a judgment continues to run even after a motion to vacate the default judgement is filed (see below for additional information on appeal procedures). A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

NON-SUIT JUDGMENTS

Non-suit judgments are entered against a plaintiff who fails to appear in court on the scheduled trial date. Non-suit judgments against the plaintiff are similar to default judgments against the defendant. (See above section.) If a non-suit judgment has been entered, the plaintiff has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to enter a motion requesting that the judgment be vacated and the case reopened so the plaintiff may present evidence on the case. This motion must be in writing and should briefly state the reasons for the request, as provided by 10 Del. C. § 9539. (Copies of the complete Delaware Code, which include this Code section, are available in public libraries throughout the State.) A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

APPEALS - Either party has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to appeal the judgment to the Court of Common Pleas for a trial de novo (new trial). 10 Del. C. § 9571. To file an appeal, the appellant (party seeking the appeal) must go to the Court of Common Pleas, fill out the appeal form and comply with other Court of Common Pleas requirements, within 15 days after the judgment is entered. A certified transcript of the Justice of the Peace Court record and the filing fee of $125.00 must be filed by the appellant with the Court of Common Pleas within 10 days after the appeal was filed (within 25 days after the Justice of the Peace Court judgment). A certified transcript of Justice of the Peace Court record may be obtained from the Justice of the Peace Court which ordered the judgment at least five (5) days prior to the final date of filing the transcript with the Court of Common Pleas. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY A CERTIFIED TRANSCRIPT REQUEST. To prevent execution on the judgment during the time of the appeal, an appellant must apply to the Court of Common Pleas for a bond to stay the execution.

MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL - Either party has 10 days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to file a motion for a new trial as provided under Justice of the Peace Court Civil Rule 59. This motion shall be in writing and shall briefly state the reasons for the request. A motion for a new trial will be heard by the Justice of the Peace who originally heard the case. The ability of the Justice of the Peace to grant a motion for a new trial is limited. For example, the reason given for requesting a new trial may be newly discovered evidence. However, for a judge to grant a motion for a new trial based upon newly discovered evidence, the party requesting the new trial must show all of the following: (1) the newly discovered evidence is important enough to change the result in the case; (2) the evidence could not have been discovered prior to the original trial with reasonable investigation; and (3) the evidence does not merely repeat or dispute evidence presented in the original trial. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

FOR LANDLORD/TENANT POSSESSION ACTIONS:

APPEALS

FOR POSSESSION OF RENTAL UNIT - Either party has five (5) business days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to appeal the judgment of a Justice of the Peace which relates to the possession of a rental unit and other rental matters (including back rent due) to a special Justice of the Peace court. The special court trial will be a completely new trial before three other Justices of the Peace, unless the original trial was a jury trial. The appellant (seeking to appeal to the three-judge special court) must appear in the originating Justice of the Peace Court and make the appeal in writing. A FEE OF $50.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION. To prevent execution on the judgment during the time of the appeal, the appellant must provide a bond or other assurances, as required by the court, to demonstrate the ability to pay all court costs, money damages, and other payments ordered by the court.

FOR DEBT (Rent Only) - The procedures for appealing or filing a motion for a new trial in a civil debt action explained above apply to an appeal of a landlord/tenant action involving rent or money damages only (and not possession of the rental unit).

DEFAULT OR NON-SUIT JUDGMENTS - If the possession of the rental unit was obtained by default judgment or nonsuit in a landlord/tenant possession action, the motion to vacate the default judgment or nonsuit must be filed within 10 days from the date the judgment was entered. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION. (This applies only to cases filed after July 17, 1996. Motions to vacate a default judgment or nonsuit in cases filed before July 17, 1996 must comply with the same time periods as for default and nonsuit judgments in civil actions in debt, trespass or replevin (see front page).)

NOTICE OF JUDGMENT/ORDER

The Court has entered a judgment or order in the following form:

Plaintiffs originally filed this suit on January 10, 2012 to recover unpaid rent and possession of the premises located at 509 Heath Row, Milford, DE 19963. A trial was held before the Hon. Larry Sipple on January 26, 2012 with a decision being rendered in favor of the plaintiff on January 27, 2012. A hearing before a three judge panel pursuant to 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5717 (a) was requested by the defendants on February 3, 2012. An appeal bond was set at $10,000, which the defendants failed to post and possession of the premises was returned to the plaintiffs on Feb. 13, 2012.

All parties appeared for the trial de novo before the Hon. Stephani Adams, the Hon. Sheila Blakely and the Hon. John C. Martin on February 20, 2012. The defendants indicated at the hearing that they no longer sought possession of the premises, but disputed the amount of the original judgment. The panel decided to go ahead with the hearing on the back rent, since all parties were there and the Court only learned at trial that possession was no longer an issue.

The defendants disputed the amount sought by the plaintiffs after the parties had reached an agreement in November 2011 for the defendants to pay $500 per week instead of $1600 per month in order to catch up on the back rent. Defendants also claimed that the plaintiffs had told them to keep their money and use it to find a new place to live, which somehow voided their obligation to pay the full amount listed in their rental agreement.

After a careful review of all the testimony and evidence presented, the Court finds for the plaintiffs by a preponderance of the evidence. The Court found the arguments of the defendants to be without merit. 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5108(a) states that once a lease expires and becomes a month to month lease "...all other terms of the rental agreement shall continue in full force and effect." The total amount owed to the plaintiffs is determined by the Court to be $11,378.28. This amount was determined as follows: Back rent in the amount of $200 for July 2011 and $1600 per month rent for 6 months through January 2012 equals $9,800.00. Per diem rent for 13 days during the month of February at $53.33 per day equals $693.29. Late fees of $75.00 are only awarded for 10 months, since a new payment arrangement was worked out the first week in November, 2011. Late fees therefore total $750.00. Kerosene bills totaled $2,034.99 for a delivery on January 24, 2012 of $990.00 and a delivery made on February 20, 2012 of $1,040.99. No award is made for carpet cleaning as this new issue was not identified in the original complaint or after the appeal was filed and prior to the trial de novo as required under 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5717(b). Finally a security deposit of $1,900.00 was subtracted from the total.

Therefore judgment is entered in favor of the plaintiffs in the amount of $11,378.28 plus $40.00 court costs and interest at the rate of 5.75 % per annum.

It is so ordered this 22nd day of February, 2012.

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS

Any party has 15 days starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge to appeal the judgment of the Justice of the Peace Court to the Court of Common Pleas of the above county. If the judgment involves an action for summary possession in a landlord/tenant case, then either party has 5 business days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to appeal the judgment to a three judge panel at the Justice of the Peace Court where the judgment was ordered. You must complete all of the appeal requirements within those periods. To prevent dismissal, the appeal must name all of the parties as they were originally named in the Justice of the Peace Court action. (This applies even if the action was dismissed in the Justice of the Peace Court against one or more of the parties.) Additional information on appeal procedures is found in the attached sheet entitled "Justice of the Peace Courts Civil Post-Judgment Procedures". (J.P. Civ. Form No. 14A) If no appeal is filed, parties may remove all exhibits from the Court no sooner than 16 days and no later than 30 days, from the date of this judgment. If not removed, the Court may dispose of the exhibits without further notice to the parties.

Final Date of Appeal of a Civil Case to the Court of Common Pleas is 15 days from the judgment.

Final Date for Appeal of a Landlord/Tenant case to a 3 Judge Panel is 5 days from the judgment.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURT CIVIL POST-JUDGMENT PROCEDURES

[This information is not legal advice and not a substitute for seeking legal advice from an attorney. This information is not binding on the court if incorrect or misunderstood. It relates to frequently asked questions concerning post-judgment procedures but does not address all of the possible procedures and may not apply in your particular case. Forms for these procedures may be obtained from any Justice of the Peace Civil Court. All motions must include the name of the court, the names of the parties, the case number, the date the motion is filed with the Justice of the Peace Court and a title indicating the reason for the motion. Court costs or fees must accompany the motion, unless the person has requested, and the court determined, that the person may proceed in forma pauperis (without paying costs or fees because they have no money to pay).]

FOR CIVIL ACTIONS IN DEBT, TRESPASS OR REPLEVIN:

DEFAULT JUDGMENTS

Default judgments are normally entered against a defendant who fails to appear in court on the scheduled trial date or to provide a written answer to a complaint as required by the summons. If a default judgment has been entered, the defendant has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to enter a motion asking that the judgment be vacated and the case be reopened so the defendant may present evidence on the case. If service was made by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the certified mail was returned unclaimed, the defendant has 30 calendar days to file a motion to vacate a default judgment. This motion must be in writing and should briefly state the reason for the request to vacate the judgment as provided by 10 Del. C. § 9538. (Copies of the complete Delaware Code, which include this Code section, are available in public libraries throughout the State.) The time allowed to appeal a judgment continues to run even after a motion to vacate the default judgement is filed (see below for additional information on appeal procedures). A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

NON-SUIT JUDGMENTS

Non-suit judgments are entered against a plaintiff who fails to appear in court on the scheduled trial date. Non-suit judgments against the plaintiff are similar to default judgments against the defendant. (See above section.) If a non-suit judgment has been entered, the plaintiff has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to enter a motion requesting that the judgment be vacated and the case reopened so the plaintiff may present evidence on the case. This motion must be in writing and should briefly state the reasons for the request, as provided by 10 Del. C. § 9539. (Copies of the complete Delaware Code, which include this Code section, are available in public libraries throughout the State.) A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

APPEALS - Either party has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to appeal the judgment to the Court of Common Pleas for a trial de novo (new trial). 10 Del. C. § 9571. To file an appeal, the appellant (party seeking the appeal) must go to the Court of Common Pleas, fill out the appeal form and comply with other Court of Common Pleas requirements, within 15 days after the judgment is entered. A certified transcript of the Justice of the Peace Court record and the filing fee of $125.00 must be filed by the appellant with the Court of Common Pleas within 10 days after the appeal was filed (within 25 days after the Justice of the Peace Court judgment). A certified transcript of Justice of the Peace Court record may be obtained from the Justice of the Peace Court which ordered the judgment at least five (5) days prior to the final date of filing the transcript with the Court of Common Pleas. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY A CERTIFIED TRANSCRIPT REQUEST. To prevent execution on the judgment during the time of the appeal, an appellant must apply to the Court of Common Pleas for a bond to stay the execution.

MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL - Either party has 10 days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to file a motion for a new trial as provided under Justice of the Peace Court Civil Rule 59. This motion shall be in writing and shall briefly state the reasons for the request. A motion for a new trial will be heard by the Justice of the Peace who originally heard the case. The ability of the Justice of the Peace to grant a motion for a new trial is limited. For example, the reason given for requesting a new trial may be newly discovered evidence. However, for a judge to grant a motion for a new trial based upon newly discovered evidence, the party requesting the new trial must show all of the following: (1) the newly discovered evidence is important enough to change the result in the case; (2) the evidence could not have been discovered prior to the original trial with reasonable investigation; and (3) the evidence does not merely repeat or dispute evidence presented in the original trial. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

FOR LANDLORD/TENANT POSSESSION ACTIONS:

APPEALS

FOR POSSESSION OF RENTAL UNIT - Either party has five (5) business days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to appeal the judgment of a Justice of the Peace which relates to the possession of a rental unit and other rental matters (including back rent due) to a special Justice of the Peace court. The special court trial will be a completely new trial before three other Justices of the Peace, unless the original trial was a jury trial. The appellant (seeking to appeal to the three-judge special court) must appear in the originating Justice of the Peace Court and make the appeal in writing. A FEE OF $50.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION. To prevent execution on the judgment during the time of the appeal, the appellant must provide a bond or other assurances, as required by the court, to demonstrate the ability to pay all court costs, money damages, and other payments ordered by the court.

FOR DEBT (Rent Only) - The procedures for appealing or filing a motion for a new trial in a civil debt action explained above apply to an appeal of a landlord/tenant action involving rent or money damages only (and not possession of the rental unit).

DEFAULT OR NON-SUIT JUDGMENTS - If the possession of the rental unit was obtained by default judgment or nonsuit in a landlord/tenant possession action, the motion to vacate the default judgment or nonsuit must be filed within 10 days from the date the judgment was entered. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION. (This applies only to cases filed after July 17, 1996. Motions to vacate a default judgment or nonsuit in cases filed before July 17, 1996 must comply with the same time periods as for default and nonsuit judgments in civil actions in debt, trespass or replevin (see front page).)

BEFORE A THREE JUDGE
PANEL

JP17-12-000158

Case Heard: February 20, 2012
Case Decided: February 22, 2012

Appearances: Both parties appeared pro se.

NOTICE OF JUDGMENT/ORDER

The Court has entered a judgment or order in the following form:

Plaintiffs originally filed this suit on January 10, 2012 to recover unpaid rent and possession of the premises located at 509 Heath Row, Milford, DE 19963. A trial was held before the Hon. Larry Sipple on January 26, 2012 with a decision being rendered in favor of the plaintiff on January 27, 2012. A hearing before a three judge panel pursuant to 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5717 (a) was requested by the defendants on February 3, 2012. An appeal bond was set at $10,000, which the defendants failed to post and possession of the premises was returned to the plaintiffs on Feb. 13, 2012.

All parties appeared for the trial de novo before the Hon. Stephani Adams, the Hon. Sheila Blakely and the Hon. John C. Martin on February 20, 2012. The defendants indicated at the hearing that they no longer sought possession of the premises, but disputed the amount of the original judgment. The panel decided to go ahead with the hearing on the back rent, since all parties were there and the Court only learned at trial that possession was no longer an issue.

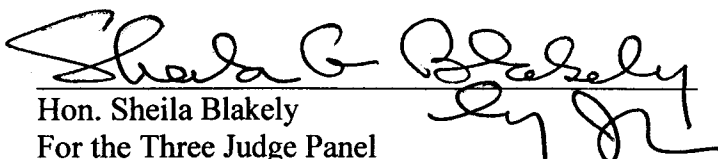

The defendants disputed the amount sought by the plaintiffs after the parties had reached an agreement in November 2011 for the defendants to pay $500 per week instead of $1600 per month in 6CF14J (Rev. 9/15/04)

order to catch up on the back rent. Defendants also claimed that the plaintiffs had told them to keep their money and use it to find a new place to live, which somehow voided their obligation to pay the full amount listed in their rental agreement.

After a careful review of all the testimony and evidence presented, the Court finds for the plaintiffs by a preponderance of the evidence. The Court found the arguments of the defendants to be without merit. 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5108(a) states that once a lease expires and becomes a month to month lease "...all other terms of the rental agreement shall continue in full force and effect." The total amount owed to the plaintiffs is determined by the Court to be $11,378.28. This amount was determined as follows: Back rent in the amount of $200 for July 2011 and $1600 per month rent for 6 months through January 2012 equals $9,800.00. Per diem rent for 13 days during the month of February at $53.33 per day equals $693.29. Late fees of $75.00 are only awarded for 10 months, since a new payment arrangement was worked out the first week in November, 2011. Late fees therefore total $750.00. Kerosene bills totaled $2,034.99 for a delivery on January 24, 2012 of $990.00 and a delivery made on February 20, 2012 of $1,040.99. No award is made for carpet cleaning as this new issue was not identified in the original complaint or after the appeal was filed and prior to the trial de novo as required under 25 Del. Code, Sec. 5717(b). Finally a security deposit of $1,900.00 was subtracted from the total.

Therefore judgment is entered in favor of the plaintiffs in the amount of $11,378.28 plus $40.00 court costs and interest at the rate of 5.75 % per annum.

It is so ordered this 22nd day of February, 2012.

Hon. Sheila Blakely
For the Three Judge Panel

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS

Any party has 15 days starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge to appeal the judgment of the Justice of the Peace Court to the Court of Common Pleas of the above county. If the judgment involves an action for summary possession in a landlord/tenant case, then either party has 5 business days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to appeal the judgment to a three judge panel at the Justice of the Peace Court where the judgment was ordered. You must complete all of the appeal requirements within those periods. To prevent dismissal, the appeal must name all of the parties as they were originally named in the Justice of the Peace Court action. (This applies even if the action was dismissed in the Justice of the Peace Court against one or more of the parties.) Additional information on appeal procedures is found in the attached sheet entitled "Justice of the Peace Courts Civil Post-Judgment Procedures". (J.P. Civ. Form No. 14A) If no appeal is filed, parties may remove all exhibits from the Court no sooner than 16 days and no later than 30 days, from the date of this judgment. If not removed, the Court may dispose of the exhibits without further notice to the parties.

Final Date of Appeal of a Civil Case to the Court of Common Pleas is 15 days from the judgment.

Final Date for Appeal of a Landlord/Tenant case to a 3 Judge Panel is 5 days from the judgment.

FOR CIVIL ACTIONS IN DEBT, TRESPASS OR REPLEVIN:

DEFAULT JUDGMENTS

Default judgments are normally entered against a defendant who fails to appear in court on the scheduled trial date or to provide a written answer to a complaint as required by the summons. If a default judgment has been entered, the defendant has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to enter a motion asking that the judgment be vacated and the case be reopened so the defendant may present evidence on the case. If service was made by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the certified mail was returned unclaimed, the defendant has 30 calendar days to file a motion to vacate a default judgment. This motion must be in writing and should briefly state the reason for the request to vacate the judgment as provided by 10 Del. C. § 9538. (Copies of the complete Delaware Code, which include this Code section, are available in public libraries throughout the State.) The time allowed to appeal a judgment continues to run even after a motion to vacate the default judgement is filed (see below for additional information on appeal procedures). A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

NON-SUIT JUDGMENTS

Non-suit judgments are entered against a plaintiff who fails to appear in court on the scheduled trial date. Non-suit judgments against the plaintiff are similar to default judgments against the defendant. (See above section.) If a non-suit judgment has been entered, the plaintiff has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to enter a motion requesting that the judgment be vacated and the case reopened so the plaintiff may present evidence on the case. This motion must be in writing and should briefly state the reasons for the request, as provided by 10 Del. C. § 9539. (Copies of the complete Delaware Code, which include this Code section, are available in public libraries throughout the State.) A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

APPEALS - Either party has 15 calendar days, starting the day after the judgment is ordered by the court, to appeal the judgment to the Court of Common Pleas for a trial de novo (new trial). 10 Del. C. § 9571. To file an appeal, the appellant (party seeking the appeal) must go to the Court of Common Pleas, fill out the appeal form and comply with other Court of Common Pleas requirements, within 15 days after the judgment is entered. A certified transcript of the Justice of the Peace Court record and the filing fee of $125.00 must be filed by the appellant with the Court of Common Pleas within 10 days after the appeal was filed (within 25 days after the Justice of the Peace Court judgment). A certified transcript of Justice of the Peace Court record may be obtained from the Justice of the Peace Court which ordered the judgment at least five (5) days prior to the final date of filing the transcript with the Court of Common Pleas. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY A CERTIFIED TRANSCRIPT REQUEST. To prevent execution on the judgment during the time of the appeal, an appellant must apply to the Court of Common Pleas for a bond to stay the execution.

MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL - Either party has 10 days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to file a motion for a new trial as provided under Justice of the Peace Court Civil Rule 59. This motion shall be in writing and shall briefly state the reasons for the request. A motion for a new trial will be heard by the Justice of the Peace who originally heard the case. The ability of the Justice of the Peace to grant a motion for a new trial is limited. For example, the reason given for requesting a new trial may be newly discovered evidence. However, for a judge to grant a motion for a new trial based upon newly discovered evidence, the party requesting the new trial must show all of the following: (1) the newly discovered evidence is important enough to change the result in the case; (2) the evidence could not have been discovered prior to the original trial with reasonable investigation; and (3) the evidence does not merely repeat or dispute evidence presented in the original trial. A FEE OF $10.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

FOR LANDLORD/TENANT POSSESSION ACTIONS:

APPEALS

FOR POSSESSION OF RENTAL UNIT - Either party has five (5) business days, starting the day after the judgment is signed by the judge, to appeal the judgment of a Justice of the Peace which relates to the possession of a rental unit and other rental matters (including back rent due) to a special Justice of the Peace court. The special court trial will be a completely new trial before three other Justices of the Peace, unless the original trial was a jury trial. The appellant (seeking to appeal to the three-judge special court) must appear in the originating Justice of the Peace Court and make the appeal in writing. A FEE OF $50.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION. To prevent execution on the judgment during the time of the appeal, the appellant must provide a bond or other assurances, as required by the court, to demonstrate the ability to pay all court costs, money damages, and other payments ordered by the court.

FOR DEBT (Rent Only) - The procedures for appealing or filing a motion for a new trial in a civil debt action explained above apply to an appeal of a landlord/tenant action involving rent or money damages only (and not possession of the rental unit).
